GOV. EASLEY REAPPOINTS CROWE TO ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT BOARD

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley has reappointed Roger L. Crowe Jr. of Morehead City to the North Carolina Economic Development Board.

Crowe is a senior partner at Crowe and Cummings law firm. He is a past president and member of the Carteret County Bar Association, a member of the N.C. Academy of Trial Lawyers, a member of the N.C. Bar Association, a past vice-president and chairman of the N.C. Coastal Resource Commission, a member of the Outlying Landing Field Study Commission and a past member of the N.C. Small Business Council. Crowe received his Bachelor's degree in business from N.C. State University and is a graduate of Campbell University School of Law.

The board advises the secretary of the Department of Commerce and the governor on economic policy, industrial recruitment and expansion, trade policy, and travel and tourism. The board has 37 members, each serving a four-year term. The governor appoints 23 members. The Senate President Pro-Tem and Speaker of the House each appoint four members. The Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of Commerce, Secretary of State, Secretary of Revenue, President of the University of North Carolina System and President of the Community College System, also serve on the board.
